The New York Legislature has finally passed the bill prohibiting women's walking matches, and holding all persons, managers, pedestrians and others engaged in them criminally responsible. Strange to say, the women'srighters complain of this bill as denying them equal rights with the men.

While the former are hated the latter are extremely popular and liked, and a distinct invitation has are several thousand Japanese on the Pacific Slope, but it is said that they fall into American ways at once, dress in our fashion and soon become thoroughly Americanized. The puzzle in California is how to legislate against the Chinese and yet not against the Japanese. They are both Mongolians of the same race, and so alike that it is often difficult to tell the two people

The penalty for obstructing the census-takers, who begin their labors on the first Monday in June, are severe. The law says: All persons above the age of twenty-one years who shall refuse to furnish the information required by the supervisor or enumerator shall $100, to be recovered in an action of debt. Presidents, directors or other officials of private corporations who refuse to furnish information required of them are made liable to a penalty not to exceed $1,000. Only two weeks are allowed for the completion of the census. The compensations to the enumerators are as follows: Two cents for each living inhabitant; two cents for each death reported; ten cents for each farm; fifteen cents for each manufactory; which is to be in full for all services, and no mileage or traveling expen-

Our Arctic province of Alaska is without government or laws save such as are dealt out by the Collector of Revenue and the commander of the man-ofwar Jamestown. This, of course, is all wrong, and a suitable government ought to be provided; but the bill now before the U.S. Senate is rather extravagant the other way. There are only about 300 whites in all Alaska, including not only Sitka, but the Alleutian islands. Voters at School Elections.

By request we publish for the information of public the following sections of law defining legal voters at school elections:

Section 2, Article 8, of the Constitu- east Misscuri." tion, prescribes the qualifications of voters as follows:

It is not necessary for us to enlarge upon this question at this this time. We started out merely to say that as Lowndes H. Davis has proven himself a faithful servant of the people, and as he is possessed of the ability as well as the will to serve them, his candidacy will be supported by forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding the REGISTER during the coming campaign. This concluson we believe to be in accordance with the sentiment of the people of Iron county.

D. R. Barclay's Open Letter.

D. Robert Barclay, of St. Louis, sends us his "Open Letter to John A Hockaday," and we have read it. Outside of a few unsubstantiated charges against Mr. Hockaday, the Letter is a mass of virulent verbiage. D. Robert has a personal grievance against Mr. Hockaday, and he evidently thinks now is the time to "get his change." That personal grievance The salvation army in New York is depicted in a full and satisfactory remet with a defeat soon after their land- ply to the "Open Letter," published ing there in the refusal on the part of in the Fulton Telegraph, of the 26th
